Important Notice to Applicants

- All documents must be the original copies, written in either Korean or English. A Korean or English translation must be attached to any document written in another language.
- If it is not possible to submit the original document, a copy authenticated by the issuing institution after comparing with the original or the original notarized copy must be submitted. When submitting the original notarized copy, it must be submitted exactly as notarized, not a copy (the original will be returned after an authentication check).
- In the eligibility assessment (Step 1) if there are discrepancies or deficiencies in the application materials, or if the document submission is incomplete, the applicant will be deemed as 'disqualified' and excluded from further consideration.
- If an applicant is found to have provided false information in their submitted documents or used fraudulent methods to gain admission, their admission and acceptance will be revoked, and their tuition fees will not be refunded.
- Admission scores will not be disclosed, and submitted documents (records) will not be returned.
- Once the application is submitted, the application cannot be cancelled, and no changes can be made. Any disadvantages resulting from errors, omissions, or inaccuracies in the information entered during online application are the responsibility of the applicant, so please fill out the application carefully.

- Accepted students must make the tuition payment by the specified deadline (first-semester installment payment is not allowed). Failure to make the tuition payment will result in the cancellation of admission.
- The conditionally admitted prospective graduate must submit their graduation certificate and academic proof documents. If they do not, both the acceptance and admission will be canceled.
- For students residing abroad who need to apply for a visa at the embassy, a standard letter of admission will be issued.
- If the accepted student has to withdraw from admission for unavoidable reasons, the paid tuition fee may be refunded according to the university regulations.
 ※ For new students, if you request a waiver before the admission date, you can receive a full refund of your tuition fees. If you apply to withdraw after admission, the tuition fees will be prorated and refunded based on the number of days of classes attended.
- All new students must take out accident and health insurance that is effective from their date of entry into the country to prepare for any unforeseen accidents or illnesses. (This insurance must be maintained throughout the period of enrollment). According to the National Health Insurance Act, starting from March 2021, international students are automatically registered in the Korean National Health Insurance as local subscribers.
 ※ Korean National Health Insurance: Website <https://www.nhis.or.kr/nhis> Phone +82-33-811-2000
- Other matters not specified are decided by the Admission Committee.
- The admission guidelines are available in Korean, English, and Chinese. If there are any differences in interpretation, the Korean version of the guidelines will be considered the definitive version.
- If it is difficult to verify the facts with only the documents submitted by the applicant, additional documents may be requested. Failure to submit such documents will result in disqualification.
- Applicants' personal information will not be used or provided for any purpose other than the items mentioned below, and personal data will be lawfully disposed of after the expiration of the personal information retention period. (However, for final registrants, it will be retained in academic records.)

Collection and Use of Personal Information (Mandatory)

- Kangwon National University collects and uses the personal information of applicants for the purpose of graduate school admissions as follows
  - Applicant Information: name, alien registration number, passport number, address, (mobile) phone number, email, bank account number
  - School information: academic background, school from which the applicant graduated, year of graduation (expected), study abroad and period of stay
  - Occupational information: Occupational matters (job classification, etc.)
  - Others: Language proficiency scores, letters of recommendation, etc.
- The collected personal information is never used for any purpose other than admissions, scholarships, bachelor's, statistics, course application guidance, visa and residence management, and dormitory. When personal information becomes unnecessary, such as when the retention period (10 years) has elapsed or the purpose of processing has been achieved, the personal information is destroyed without delay.
