04/ Things You Should Know Before Application

[ Applications Process ]

- Only online applications are accepted; in-person and postal submissions are not available.
- Applicants who submit multiple applications to different departments under this admission track (i.e., receive more than one application number) will be disqualified.
- Once the online application is completed, it cannot be withdrawn, and changes to the applied department or major are not permitted.
  - ※ For inquiries regarding the intended major, please contact the relevant department directly.
- Applicants must provide accurate contact information, including email address and phone number, and remain reachable throughout the admission period. Any disadvantages (cancellation of admission) resulting from incorrect contact information or loss of contact are the responsibility of the applicant.

[ Submission of Documents ]

- All documents must be submitted as originals. If reissuance is not possible, applicants must submit either a copy verified against the original by the issuing institution or a notarized copy certified by a notary public.
- Documents not written in Korean or English must be accompanied by a notarized Korean or English translation.
- If any submitted information is found to be false or if admission is obtained through fraudulent means, admission will be revoked.
- If the submitted documents are insufficient to verify the applicant's qualifications, additional documents may be requested. Failure to submit required documents will result in disqualification.
- All required documents for applicants who have completed the application must arrive by June 19, 2026 (Fri). Applicants whose documents do not arrive by the deadline will be disqualified without prior notice (including the application form).

※ All dates and times indicated are based on Korean Standard Time.

Document Submission Address: (34134) Room 205, Office of International Affairs (E1-1), 99 Daehak-ro, Yuseong-gu, Daejeon, Republic of Korea

[ Others ]

- Applicants must regularly check the Notice Board on the Chungnam National University Admissions website (<http://ipsi.cnu.ac.kr/html/gadm/>) during the application period and follow all instructions. Any disadvantages resulting from failure to check notices are the responsibility of the applicant.
- Applicants may apply to only one department through one university.
  - ※ Multiple applications will result in disqualification; if discovered after evaluation, admission will be revoked.
- If an applicant is unable to attend the Academic Competency Assessment due to unavoidable circumstances beyond their control* and reports this in advance, they must take the assessment within 24 hours if the reason is deemed valid.
  - * Unavoidable circumstances include natural disasters or hospitalization due to illness.
  - ※ Absence due to personal reasons will not be accepted.
- Applicants deemed unfit to pursue academic studies may be denied admission (admission scores will not be disclosed).
- Admitted applicants must fully cooperate with academic credential verification; failure to respond may result in cancellation of admission.
- Final admitted students must complete all required enrollment procedures (course registration) within the designated period.
- Matters not specified in this guideline will be handled in accordance with the regulations set by the Office of International Affairs at Chungnam National University.
- For further information, please contact the Office of International Affairs [Tel. +82-42-821-8826].
